

FOLLOW-UP COMMITTEE

Purpose of the Committee:

To follow-up on those who made commitments during The Master's Storyteller. To organize opportunities for spiritual growth for the congregation.

Work of the Committee:

Nurture new Christians and incorporate them into the life of the church.

Provide opportunities for the congregation that encourage active participation in mission and ministry.

It is helpful to provide a mentor for each new believer to help him/her become established in the faith.

Begin a study group to deal with the basics of the Christian faith.

Offer several prayer and study groups for the rest of the membership of the church.

Work through the Council on Ministries of the church to examine possibilities for social outreach in the community (clothing bank, food bank, job bank, prison ministry, nursing homes, etc.)

Two months to one month out

Recruit Committee members who have a heart for discipleship.

One week

Make copies of the attached The Master's Storyteller "My Response Card". Copy on cardstock paper and cut each sheet into two cards. Have enough cards available for each person attending on the final night of The Master's Storyteller. (These cards are very important for follow-up).

After event

Tally the results of the decision cards to give direction for your follow-up.

Work with Church staff to create discipleship opportunities, classes, or small groups, as indicated by responses on decision cards.

Plan a "shot in the arm" every three or four months. This can be through missions, music, drama, preaching, or teaching events. For outreach or growth ideas, contact the Board of Discipleship in Nashville.
